

WETP Emergency Support Activation Plan (ESAP) Update

Rachel Gross, PhD, CHES

Background

- Initial survey conducted in breakouts at the April 2004 conference
- Those results provided direction for formal telephone survey
- Principal Investigators sent request to have a representative participate in survey

Resource information sought in survey

- Courses
- Instructors
- Training Facilities
- Specialist employees
 - Safety professionals
 - Industrial hygienists
 - Health physicists
 - Occupational physicians
 - Rad technicians
- Real-time monitors

Participants Thus Far

California-Arizona Consortium

International Union of Operating Engineers

The New England
Consortium

The Center to Protect Workers' Rights

George Meany Center for Labor Studies

University of Alabama

The New Jersey/New York Hazardous
Materials Worker Training Center

International Association of Fire Fighters

International Chemical Workers Union Council

Operated by MDB, Inc.

Areas with 1910.120 p Trainers

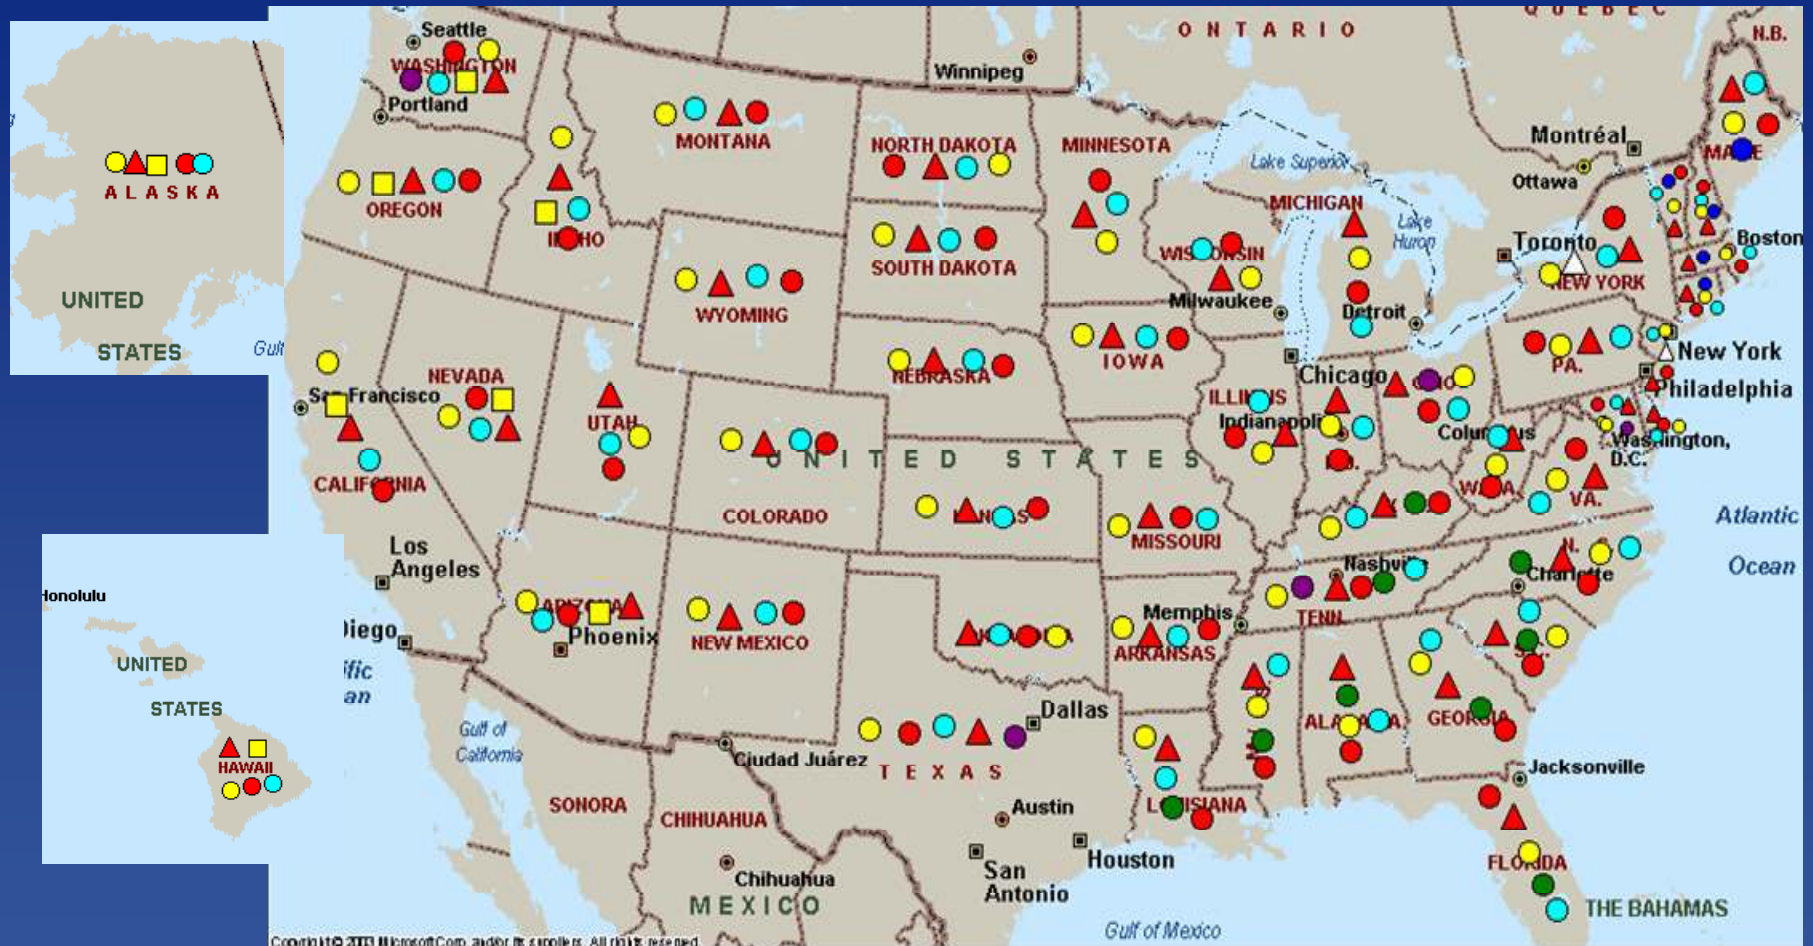

CAC IUOE UMDMJ ICWU

Operated by MDB, Inc.

Areas with 1910.120 q Trainers

IAFF

GMCLS

CAC

IUOE

UMDMJ

ICWU

CPWR

TNEC

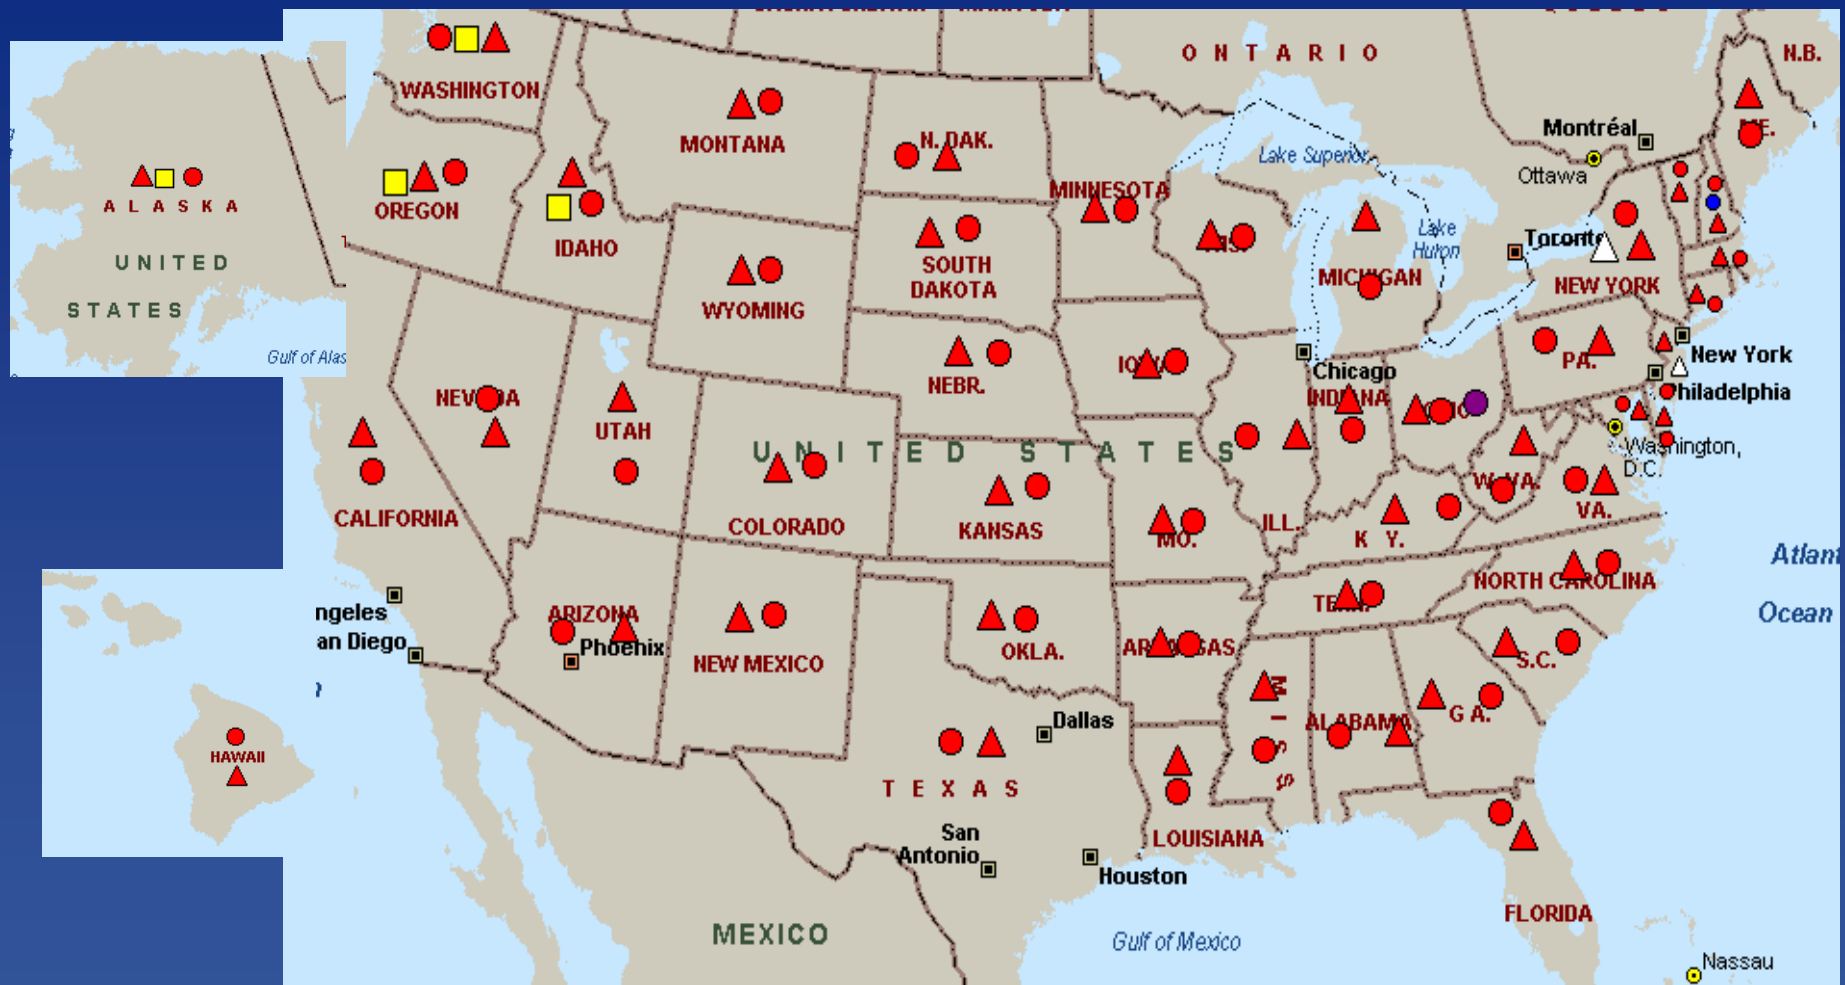

UAB

Operated by MDB, Inc.

Areas with OSHA 16-hour Trainers

 CAC  IUOE  UMDMJ  ICWU  CPWR  TNEC

Operated by MDB, Inc.

Areas with OSHA 32-hour Trainers

GMCLS IUOE UDMJ CPWR TNEC

Operated by MDB, Inc.

Number of Instructors

GMCLS

9

CAC

~25

UMDNJ

4

CPWR

1300

IUOE

100s

IAFF

85

ICWU

32

UAB

5

TNEC

10

TOTAL = OVER 1,500 !

Participants who have Agreed to Supply Us with the Names of their Trainers and Facilities that will be Available During a Response

GMCLS

CAC

UMDNJ

IAFF

IUOE

UAB

TNEC

Thank You!

©.Original Artist
Reproduction rights obtainable from www.CartoonStock.com

I'M SORRY, THIS IS THE LINE FOR PEOPLE WHO VOLUNTEERED TO HELP
THEIR COMMUNITY. YOU'RE LOOKING FOR THE ETERNAL DAMNATION DEPARTMENT.

(And I look Forward to Speaking to the Rest of You)